§ 3 Concluding an insurance contract

1. The insurance contract is concluded for a specified period of time.
2. The Policyholder and the Insured Person are obliged to notify the Insurance Company about any circumstances that are known to the Policyholder and the Insured Person, and which the Insurance Company enquired about prior to the conclusion of the insurance contract. The Insurance Company is not liable for any consequences of the circumstances that it has not been notified about in violation of the provisions contained in the preceding sentence.
3. The insurance contract and the relations between the Insurance Company and the Policyholder prior to the conclusion of such a contract are governed by the Polish law.
4. The Insured Person's accessing the insurance takes effect during the process of his/her purchasing services with the Policyholder – through completing an application in the website service or over the telephone. The procedure of accessing the insurance via the website by the Insured Persons is set out in the Rules and Regulations.
5. The Insured Person's accessing the insurance takes effect upon the Insured Person becoming acquainted with the Rules and Regulations and these General Terms and Conditions of Insurance, which is confirmed by the Insured Person in a statement submitted on the website or during the telephone conversation.
6. Prior to taking out insurance the Policyholder provides these General Terms and Conditions of Insurance to the Insured Person in writing or, upon the Insured Person's consent, on other durable media.
7. The Insured Person's accessing the insurance is confirmed by the insurance certificate, which, along with these General Terms and Conditions of Insurance, is delivered to the Insured Person by the Policyholder to the e-mail address indicated by the Policyholder, or – at the Insured Person's request – in another form. The certificate shall indicate the term and the scope of insurance applicable to a particular Insured Person.
8. Prior to accessing the insurance the Insured Person is obliged to effect the payment of the insurance premium due on account of the Insured Person, and possibly other Insured Persons, being insured to the benefit of the Policyholder. The amount of the premium is indicated in the website service maintained by the Policyholder during the process of completing the insurance application by the Insured Person, or during a telephone conversation.
9. The insurance document, together with the attachments, if any, and these General Insurance Terms and Conditions shall determine the period and scope of insurance which the Insured Person is covered by.

10. The Insurance Contract may also cover other persons, indicated by the Insured Person in the insurance application completed in the website service maintained by the Policyholder or during a telephone conversation. Prior to covering the said persons with insurance, the Insured Person is obliged to obtain their consent to being covered by insurance and to provide to them a copy of these General Insurance Terms and Conditions. As of the time of issuing the insurance document and on the conditions stipulated therein, those persons become Insured Persons.
11. The minimum period of insurance for one Insured Person shall be one day (24 hours).
12. By accessing the insurance, the Insured Person discharges his/her doctors from medical confidentiality (doctor-patient privilege) and expresses his/her consent to deliver medical documentation to the Insurance Company's medical consultants and Emergency Centre doctors, as well as their foreign representatives.
13. In case when on the basis of the same insurance application several persons access the insurance, all of these persons are covered by the same scope of insurance, on the same conditions, with sums of insurance applying to each of those persons individually.

§ 4 Territorial scope of cover

Insurance cover shall be provided in the geographical zone selected by the Policyholder, comprising either Zone Europe or Zone Worldwide.

§ 5 Beginning and end of insurance cover

1. Insurance covering:
 - 1) medical treatment costs and assistance, personal liability, luggage, luggage delay, flight delay, cash withdrawn from an ATM, loss of travel documents, means of payment, missed flight – shall begin on the day indicated in the insurance document as the commencement date of the insurance cover and after the premium payment to the benefit of the Policyholder has been made, and shall end at 23:59 on the day indicated in the insurance document as the ending date of the insurance cover; the insurance cover in the above mentioned scope of coverage is not provided on the territory of the Insured Person's country of permanent residence and the territory of the country the Insured Person is a citizen of;
 - 2) accidents shall begin upon the Insured Person's departure from home on the territory of the Insured Person's country of permanent residence for the purpose of commencing the foreign trip, however not earlier than on the day indicated as the commencement date of the insurance cover in the insurance document and after the premium payment has been made to the benefit of the Policyholder; the intention to travel shall be evidenced by the Insured Person's providing the travelling documents, accommodation booking etc, and shall end upon the Insured Person's return home on the territory of the Insured Person's country of permanent residence on return, however not later than at 23:59 on the day indicated in the insurance document as the ending date of the insurance cover;
 - 3) movable property – shall begin upon the Insured Person's departure from his/her apartment on the day of commencement of the planned trip and shall end upon his/her return to the Insured Person's country of permanent residence, however, not later than 24 hours after the planned time of the Insured Person's return; the intention to travel shall be evidenced by the Insured Person by providing the travelling documents, accommodation booking etc.
2. The liability of the Insurance Company shall always end:
 - 1) Upon the exhaustion of the sum insured, with respect to a particular Insured Person;
 - 2) Upon withdrawal from the insurance contract;
 - 3) Upon the death of the Insured Person – with respect to such Insured Person;
 - 4) Upon leaving by the Insured Person the territory of the countries belonging to the geographical zone indicated in the insurance contract;
 - 5) not later however than as of midnight of the last day of the period of insurance.
3. If the Insured Person remains outside of the territory of his/her country of residence at the time of accessing the insurance, the liability of the Insurance Company commences not earlier than after the lapse of three days, counted from the day following the day on which the insurance contract was concluded, however not earlier than at the moment of effecting the payment of the insurance premium to the benefit of the Policyholder. The above limitation does not apply in the case of renewals of insurance contracts, on the condition that the renewal takes place prior to the lapse of the insurance period resulting from the previous insurance contract concluded with the Insurance Company.

§ 6 Withdrawal from the insurance contract and termination thereof

1. The Insured Person who has submitted an application for accessing the insurance has the right to withdraw from the insurance at any time prior to the commencement of the insurance cover, submitting a relevant statement of withdrawal either to the Insurance Company or to the Policyholder in writing, by phone or email. The withdrawal shall apply to all the persons covered by the same application for accessing the insurance. The withdrawal shall be deemed to have been submitted as of the moment of receiving the Insured Person's withdrawal statement by Colonnade of by the Policyholder.
2. After the commencement of insurance cover it is not possible for the Insured Person to withdraw from the insurance.

§ 7 Insurance Premium

1. The insurance premium shall be paid by the Insured Persons to the benefit of the Policyholder, which shall then make the premium payment to the benefit of the Insurance Company.
2. The insurance premium shall be calculated for a period during which the Insurance Company provides its insurance coverage.
3. The amount of insurance premium depends on the geographical zone selected, the period of insurance and the number of persons indicated in the policy certificate.

4. The premium shall be paid as a one-off payment.
5. The date of the premium payment shall be the day on which an effective transfer is made, i.e. when the required amount is paid via the website service maintained by the Policyholder or indicated by the Policyholder during the telephone conversation.

§ 8 Benefits

1. The burden of proof relating to the occurrence of an insured event covered by the Insurance Company and demonstrating the entitlement to receive a benefit shall lie with the person applying for such a benefit.
2. The Insurance Company shall not be held liable if the Policyholder or the Insured Person caused any loss intentionally or as a result of gross negligence, unless the payment of a benefit is equitable in the specific circumstances.
3. Legitimacy of the claim and the amount of the benefit shall be determined on the basis of full documentation, defined herein, to be submitted by the Insured Person or a person acting on his/her behalf.
4. At the Insurance Company's request, the Insured Person or a person acting on his/her behalf, shall present other documents that the Insurance Company finds necessary to confirm whether the claims are legitimate and to determine the amount of the benefit.
5. Providing by the Insured Person untrue statements about the circumstances or consequences of the insured event or his/her failure to provide explanations may prevent the Insurance Company from assessing the insured event correctly and may result in a refusal of the payment of the benefit.
6. The right to receive the benefit payable in the event of the Insured Person's death shall be granted to the Beneficiary, upon the production of the Insured Person's death certificate. If the Beneficiary has not been indicated, is no longer alive on the day of the Insured Person's death or has lost the right to the benefit, the benefit shall be payable to the Insured Person's family members in the following order:
 - 1) spouse,
 - 2) children in equal parts (if there is no spouse);
 - 3) parents in equal parts (if there is no spouse and children);
 - 4) siblings in equal parts (if there is no spouse, children and parents);
 - 5) further statutory heirs (if there is no spouse, children, parents and siblings).
7. The Insurance Company shall make the payment of the benefit up to the amount of the sums insured under individual insurance indicated in the insurance document.
8. Benefits payable to the Insured or an authorized person shall be effected in Polish zlotys, American dollars, or euros (at the Insured Person's discretion), as an equivalent of amounts in other currencies, converted into zlotys, dollars or euros at a foreign exchange rate published by the National Bank of Poland in its foreign exchange average rate tables applicable on the day of occurrence of the event giving rise to the insurance liability and shall be in the amounts not exceeding the sums insured defined in the insurance contract.
9. The Insurance Company is obliged to effect the payment of the benefit within 30 days from being notified of an insured event.
10. If it is not possible to clarify the circumstances required to determine the liability or the amount of the benefit within 30 days, the benefit shall be payable within 14 days from the day on which, with due diligence, it has become possible to clarify such circumstances. However, the Insurance Company shall pay any part of the benefit that is undisputable under the documents submitted within the time limit referred to in section 9 above.
11. Assistance services guaranteed hereunder may be delayed as a result of strikes, riots, social unrest, acts of terror, civil war or international war, radioactive or ionizing radiation, act of God or Force Majeure.
12. The Foreign Travel Insurance shall not cover any compensation for harm, pain, and physical or moral suffering.

§ 9 Recourse Claims

1. As of the benefit payment date, the Insurance Company shall take over any claims against a third party responsible for damage up to the amount of compensation paid by the Insurance Company. If the Insurance Company has covered only a part of the loss, the Insured Person shall have the priority in satisfying his/her claims over the Insurance Company's claims in relation to the remaining part of the loss. The above provision does not apply to Personal Liability Insurance as defined by these General Terms and Conditions of Insurance.
2. If the Insured Person resigns or has resigned from the right to make any claims against a third party or the right to secure claims, without the consent of the Insurance Company, the Insurance Company shall be discharged from its obligation to make the payment of the benefit and the Policyholder shall not be entitled to a reimbursement of his/her premium.
3. Claims shall not be taken over by the Insurance Company if a person causing the damage is a member of the Insured Person's household, unless the perpetrator has caused such damage intentionally.
4. The Insured Person is obliged to provide the Insurance Company with all information and documents, and to enable the Insurance Company to conduct the activities required to make efficient recourse claims.

§ 10 Subject and scope of medical treatment costs and assistance insurance

1. The insurance shall cover medical treatment costs incurred by the Insured Person who, during his/her foreign trip, had to undergo immediate medical treatment due to a sudden illness or an accident to the extent required to bring the Insured Person's health back to a condition allowing for his/her return or transportation to the place of residence or to a medical centre on the territory of the Insured Person's country of residence, as well as the costs of services connected with providing aid during the trip i.e. assistance services.

2. In the case of insurance of medical expenses and assistance, the insured event shall be regarded as a sudden illness, contracting COVID-19 or an accident of the Insured Person which occurred during the insurance period in the course of the trip and which requires immediate treatment abroad in order to stabilize the Insured Person's health condition to the extent that he/she is able to continue the trip or return to the country of permanent residence and then continue the treatment.
3. Medical treatment costs shall comprise the following expenses, if incurred outside the territory of the Insured Person's country of residence and outside the territory of the country the Insured Person is a citizen of:
 - 1) Outpatient medical examinations and treatments recommended by a doctor;
 - 2) Doctor consultations and fees;
 - 3) Hospital stay, i.e. medication, medical examinations, treatments and surgery whose performance, given the Insured Person's state of health, could not be postponed until his/her return to the territory of the Insured Person's country of residence. The Emergency Centre shall make the choice of the hospital which is best suited to the Insured Person's state of health, make the reservation with the hospital and, if required due to the Insured Person's health condition, arrange ambulance transportation to the hospital, inform the hospital about the terms of payment and remain in an ongoing contact with the hospital.
 - 4) Doctor's arrival from the nearest health care unit to the Insured Person's place of accommodation, if required due to the Insured Person's health condition;
 - 5) Purchase of medicines and dressing, plasma substitutes, as well as orthopaedic aids (e.g. artificial limbs, crutches) prescribed by a doctor, except for supplements, energizing agents and cosmetic preparations;
 - 6) The Insured Person's transportation from the place of an accident or a sudden illness to the nearest hospital or health care unit, or the Insured Person's transportation to another hospital, if a medical unit where the Insured Person is hospitalized does not provide medical care suited to the Insured Person's state of health, in accordance with a written recommendation of a supervising doctor, after appropriate arrangements with the Emergency Centre have been made;
 - 7) Providing immediate medical assistance related to pregnancy complications, as well as transportation to the medical unit resulting from such complications;
 - 8) Dental treatment in the event of sharp pains and inflammatory conditions occurring during the insurance cover period, up to the equivalent of EUR 250 for all illnesses requiring immediate medical assistance.
 - 9) Hyperbaric chamber treatment in medically justified cases.
4. Assistance Insurance shall comprise the following services:
 - 1) 24/7 Emergency Centre call-duty service
The Emergency Centre, on the basis of the information obtained from the Insured Person, shall arrange assistance in each and every situation covered by the insurance.
 - 2) The Insured Person's transportation to the territory of his/her country of residence, including in the event of contracting COVID-19
The Insurance Company shall ensure the arrangement and cover costs of transportation of the Insured Person to a health care unit or a place of residence on the territory of the Insured Person's country of residence, if required due to the Insured Person's health condition, and if the previously planned means of transportation cannot be used. The Insured Person shall be transported by the means of transportation suited to his/her health condition, after the Insured Person has been provided with indispensable medical assistance abroad, allowing for his/her transportation to the territory of the Insured Person's country of residence.
The decision regarding the necessity and feasibility of such transportation, as well as the choice of the destination to which the Insured Person is transported is made by the Emergency Centre, with the approval of the supervising doctor. The Insured Person's transportation costs shall be covered up to the amount corresponding to the cost of arranging such transportation by the Emergency Centre to the territory of the Insured Person's country of residence, and the transportation costs in question shall not decrease the sum insured under the medical treatment costs and assistance insurance.
In the event of arranging transportation independently by the Insured Person's family members or a third party, the Insurance Company shall reimburse the incurred costs, however, only up to the amount that the Emergency Centre would have incurred when arranging the Insured Person's transportation to the territory of the Insured Person's country of residence.
 - 3) Transportation of mortal remains of the Insured Person, including in the event of death as a result of contracting COVID-19
If the Insured Person dies during a foreign trip as a result of an accident or a sudden illness, the Insurance Company, with the approval of the Insured Person's family, shall arrange for all the formalities and cover the costs of:
 - a) Transportation of mortal remains of the Insured Person to the place of burial on the territory of the Insured Person's country of residence. The cost of transportation of mortal remains shall be covered up to the amount corresponding to the cost of arranging such transportation by the Emergency Centre to the territory of the Insured Person's country of residence, and the transportation cost in question shall not decrease the sum insured under the medical treatment costs and assistance insurance.
 - b) Purchase of a transportation coffin up to the equivalent of EUR 1,000.
The manner and means of transportation of mortal remains shall be chosen by the Emergency Centre. The Emergency Centre may also organize and cover the costs of cremation and transportation of the urn (ashes) to the territory of the Insured Person's country of residence, as well as the costs of the Insured Person's burial abroad, however, only up to the amount that the Emergency Centre would have incurred when arranging the transportation of the Insured Person's mortal remains to the territory of the Insured Person's country of residence.
In the event of the Insured Person's family members or a third party arranging transportation independently the Insurance Company shall reimburse the incurred costs, however, only up to the amount that the Emergency Centre would have incurred when arranging the Insured Person's mortal remains transportation to the territory of the Insured Person's country of residence.

4) Extension of the insurance cover in emergency cases

The insurance period shall be extended without the need to make payment of an additional premium, by not more than 5 days, in the event that the Insured Person's return is delayed for reasons named in points a) – f) below, which are beyond the Insured Person's control:

- a) Breakdown of a means of transportation (land, water or air transportation);
- b) Acts of God: fire, hurricane, flood, torrential rain, hail, volcanic ash,
- c) Avalanche, being struck with direct lightning, earthquake, land sinking or sliding, an explosion or a crash of aircraft;
- d) Rescue operation conducted in connection with acts of God specified in item b) above;
- e) Cancellation or delay of a public means of transportation due to adverse weather conditions;
- f) Accident of a ground, water or air means of transport.

In the event that there is the risk that a foreign trip may be prolonged, the Insured Person is obliged to contact the Emergency Centre immediately. The Insurance Company shall pay a benefit during the extended insurance period in emergency cases provided that the Insured Person presents evidence for the occurrence of the above events. In the case of a breakdown of a means of transport, such evidence shall be a car repair or towing bill or a written confirmation of such a breakdown by the carrier.

5) Delivery of urgent information

In the case of an unexpected event occurring, such an event being beyond control of the Insured Person and causing a delay or change in the course of the Insured Person's trip, the Emergency Centre, at the Insured Person's request, shall deliver the necessary information to the indicated person or institution.

6) Transportation of family members accompanying the Insured Person during a foreign trip in the event of the Insured Person's death

In the event the Insured Person dies as a result of an accident or sudden illness during a foreign trip, the Emergency Centre shall arrange and cover the costs of transportation to the territory of the Insured Person's country of residence of his/her family members insured with the Insurance Company who accompanied the Insured Person on the day of his/her death during a foreign trip. The Insurance Company shall cover the costs of transportation of the Insured Person's family members by train or bus, at the Emergency Centre's discretion. In the event that the expected transportation time by train or bus exceeds 12 hours, the Insurance Company shall cover the costs of transportation by air (economy class), provided that the originally planned means of transportation cannot be used.

The above costs of transportation of the insured family members accompanying the Insured Person shall be covered up to the amount corresponding to the costs of arrangement of such transportation to the territory of the Insured Person's country of residence by the Emergency Centre, and such transportation costs shall not decrease the sum insured under the medical treatment costs and assistance insurance.

7) Transportation of minor children of the Insured Person and covering the cost of his/her stay

In case of the Insured Person's hospitalization or death, if these events resulted from an accident or sudden illness, the Emergency Centre shall arrange and cover the costs of accommodation, meals and transportation of a minor child (children) travelling together with the Insured Person, provided that the child has been exclusively under the Insured Person's custody during the trip. The Insurance Company shall cover expenses borne for accommodation and meals of a minor child (children) for up to 7 days, with a daily limit of EUR 150. The Insurance Company shall cover the costs of transportation of the Insured Person's minor child (children) by train or bus, at the discretion of the Emergency Centre. In the event that the expected time of transportation by train or bus exceeds 12 hours, the Insurance Company shall cover the costs of transportation by air (economy class) to the territory of the Insured Person's country of residence or to a place of residence of a person indicated by the Insured Person to take care of the child (children) on the territory of the Insured Person's country of residence or the country of the Insured Person's hospitalization. During the transportation, the children shall remain under the custody of the Insurance Company's representative.

The above costs of transportation of the Insured Person's minor child (children) shall be covered up to an amount corresponding to the cost of arranging such transportation by the Emergency Centre to the territory of the Insured Person's country of residence. The costs of the transportation shall not decrease the sum insured under the medical treatment costs and assistance insurance.

8) Coverage of costs related to the stay and transportation of a person accompanying the Insured Person in a foreign trip

- a) If, as a result of a sudden illness or an accident, the Insured Person has to be hospitalized, the Emergency Centre shall arrange and cover the costs of accommodation, meals and return transportation for one person accompanying the Insured Person, provided that the presence of such a person is necessary and recommended in writing by the doctor supervising the Insured Person's treatment abroad, appointed or approved by the Emergency Centre. The accompanying person shall be transported from the hospitalization place of the Insured Person to the place of residence of the accompanying person on the territory of the Insured Person's country of residence.
- b) In the event of the Insured Person's death as a result of a sudden illness or an accident, the Emergency Centre shall arrange and cover the costs of accommodation, meals and return transportation for one person remaining with the Insured Person's corpse and accompanying it during the transportation to the territory of the Insured Person's country of residence. The person accompanying the Insured Person's corpse to the territory of the Insured Person's country of residence shall be transported to the place of burial or to a relevant institution on the territory of the Insured Person's country of residence. The choice of such a destination place shall be made at the discretion of the Emergency Centre.

The above costs shall be reimbursed for the maximum of 7 days, with a daily limit of EUR 100. The Insurance Company shall cover the costs of the person's transportation by train or bus – at Emergency Centre's discretion. In the event that the expected time of travel by train or bus exceeds 12 hours, the Insurance Company shall cover the costs of air transportation (economy class). The transportation costs referred to above shall be reimbursed up to the amount corresponding to the costs of arranging such transportation to the territory of the country of residence by the Emergency Centre. Such transportation costs shall not reduce the sum insured under the medical treatment costs and assistance insurance.

9) Transportation and stay of a family member called to the Insured Person or of another person indicated by the Insured Person

In the event that the Insured Person is hospitalized abroad for a period of time exceeding 7 days and is not accompanied during his/her trip by any adult person, or if the Insured Person's life is at risk, as confirmed by the written opinion of a supervising doctor, the Emergency Centre shall arrange, and cover the costs of, the stay and transportation (including a return to the respective place of residence) to the Insured Person's hospitalization place, of one person called by the Insured Person to accompany him/her, such a person domiciled on the territory of the Insured Person's country of residence or hospitalization. The Insurance Company shall cover the costs of transportation by train or bus, at the Emergency Centre's discretion. In the event that the expected time of transportation by train or bus exceeds 12 hours, the Insurance Company shall cover the costs of air transportation (economy class). The costs of transportation shall be covered up to the amount corresponding to costs of arranging such transportation to and from the territory of the country of residence by the Emergency Centre. Such transportation costs shall not decrease the sum insured under the medical treatment costs and assistance insurance. The costs incurred in connection with the stay of a person called to accompany the Insured Person shall be reimbursed for the maximum of 7 days, with the daily limit of EUR 100.

10) Coverage of costs of search and rescue in the mountains and at sea

The Insurance Company shall cover the costs of search and rescue of the Insured Person in the mountains and at sea up to the maximum amount indicated in the insurance document. The search and rescue shall be carried out by specialized mountain or sea rescue services on the territory of a given country or in the international area. The search service shall be provided from the moment of notifying the relevant services of the Insured Person's missing until the Insured Person has been found, or until the search operation is abandoned. The rescue service shall be provided from the moment of finding the Insured Person until he/she is conveyed to the relevant medical services, and consists in providing first aid by specialized services. The Insurance Company shall not cover any costs in the case of a supposed risk of kidnapping.

11) Reimbursement of the costs of a ski lift pass

The insurance shall cover the costs of a ski pass entitling its holder to make use of ski lifts and to participate in the activities of a skiing or snowboarding school. The Insurance Company shall reimburse the costs of a ski lift pass if its holder is not able to make use of the ski pass due to his/her health condition resulting from a sudden illness or an accident covered by insurance as defined herein. The Insurance Company shall reimburse the costs of an unused ski pass for the period corresponding to the number of full days during which time its holder was not able to make use of it, however in the amount not exceeding the equivalent of EUR 250 per person.

12) Benefit in the event of ski run closure

In the event of closure of all marked ski runs situated in the skiing area in the vicinity of the Insured Person's place of accommodation (30 km radius), because of adverse weather conditions prevailing during the period of insurance cover, as a result of which the Insured Person was prevented from practising skiing or snowboarding, the Insurance Company shall pay a benefit in the amount of EUR 20 per person per each full day of closure of ski runs, however, in the amount not exceeding the equivalent of EUR 200 per person, provided that the closure occurred in the period from 15 December to 15 March and not earlier than on the Insured Person's departure day, during the term of the insurance contract.

13) Reimbursement of the costs of skiing equipment rental

In the event that the Insured Person was prevented from making use of the skiing equipment due to:

- a) A personal accident or a sudden illness, reported to Colonnade Emergency Centre and confirmed by a doctor's diagnosis, as a result of which the Insured Person was prevented from making use of the skiing equipment,
- b) Loss, if the sports equipment was in the custody of a professional carrier on the basis of a relevant carriage document or was deposited at the left luggage office against a receipt,
- c) Damage to or destruction of the sports equipment during the practising of sports, if the said damage or destruction occurred as a result of a personal accident, taking place outside of the territory of the Insured Person's country of permanent residence, confirmed by a doctor's diagnosis and reported to Colonnade Emergency Centre;

the Insurance Company shall reimburse the costs of rental of skiing equipment corresponding to the type of lost or damaged equipment, in the amount of EUR 20 per person per day of rental, however in the amount not exceeding the equivalent of EUR 200 per person.

14) Assistance in the event of the necessary earlier return of the Insured Person

If the Insured Person is forced to make an unexpected, earlier-than-scheduled return to the territory of the Insured Person's country of residence, and the originally planned means of transportation cannot be used, the Emergency Centre shall arrange, and cover the costs of, the Insured Person's transportation to the territory of the Insured Person's country of residence by train or bus, at Emergency Centre's discretion, and, in the event that the expected time of travel by train or bus exceeds 12 hours, the Emergency Centre shall arrange, and cover the costs of, air transportation (economy class). Such a service shall only be provided in the event of:

- a) a sudden illness of the Insured Person's family member resulting in that family member's hospitalization or death,
- b) a burglary, fire or flooding of an apartment or a house at the Insured Person's place of residence on the territory of the Insured Person's country of permanent residence, requiring taking legal and administrative actions during the period of the planned trip, in the course of which the presence of the Insured Person is indispensable.

The need of the Insured Person's earlier return must be documented and approved in advance by the Emergency Centre. Transportation costs shall be covered up to an amount corresponding to the cost of arranging such transportation to the territory of the Insured Person's country of residence by the Emergency Centre. Such transportation costs shall not decrease the sum insured under the medical treatment costs and assistance insurance.

15) Assistance in the event of the necessary prolongation of the Insured Person's trip

If the health condition of the Insured Person does not demand hospitalization, the originally scheduled period of the Insured Person's trip has elapsed and the Emergency Centre is not in a position to effect the Insured Person's transportation due to reasons beyond the Insured Person's control, the Emergency Centre shall arrange, and cover the cost of, accommodation and meals for the Insured Person. Additionally, the costs incurred in connection with the stay of a person called to accompany the Insured Person shall be reimbursed for the maximum period of 3 days, with the daily limit of EUR 500.

16) Continuation of the Insured Person's planned trip

If the health conditions of the Insured Person, after completion of the treatment connected with a sudden illness or an accident, allows him/her to continue the trip, the Emergency Centre, at the Insured Person's request, shall arrange, and cover the costs of, the transportation of the Insured Person, together with the Insured members of the Insured Person's family accompanying him/her, from the place of his/her hospitalization to a subsequent stage of the interrupted trip (by train or bus, at Emergency Centre's discretion, and if the expected time of travel by train or bus exceeds 12 hours, by air (economy class)), to enable the Insured Person to continue the trip.

17) Quarantine Benefit

In the event that the Insured Person is forced to extend his/her stay due to contracting COVID-19, confirmed by a positive test, or is placed under compulsory quarantine by the local sanitary services as a result of COVID-19 (regardless of whether a test has been carried out), which will not end by the date of the scheduled end of the trip, the Insurance Company shall cover the necessary and documented additional costs of accommodation (in a standard/category not higher than the original accommodation), food and transport, up to a maximum of EUR 1,200. Within this limit, the Insurance Company shall cover the costs of the Insured Person's return transport to the country of residence, provided that it cannot be carried out using the previously scheduled means of transport.

18) Benefit in case of limitations on crossing the border due to lockdown

In the event that the Insured Person travelling is not able to leave the country in which they are located and is forced to prolong his/her stay due to a decision of the competent authorities of this country to close the borders due to an epidemic situation, Colonnade shall cover, up to the maximum amount indicated in the insurance document, the necessary and documented additional costs of:

- a) accommodation (in a standard/category not higher than the original stay),
- b) meals,
- c) change of air reservation in the form of handling costs,
- d) transfer to airport,
- e) transport to the country of permanent residence, provided that it cannot be provided by the previously scheduled means of transport.

Colonnade shall not be liable if the decision of the authority prohibiting the departure from the country in question was announced before the Insured Person's travel commenced.

19) Costs of extended stay abroad

In the event of cancellation of the originally planned return from a trip due to a terrorist attack, volcanic eruption, strike, riot, hurricane, flood or earthquake, the onset of which occurs during the Insured Person's stay abroad, the Insurance Company will reimburse the cost of accommodation and meals (excluding the cost of alcoholic beverages).

20) Substitute driver

In the event that the Insured Person's state of health as a result of a sudden illness or personal accident confirmed in writing by the lead doctor abroad does not allow the Insured Person to drive a car and the persons with whom the Insured Person will be travelling do not have a driving licence, the Assistance Centre shall organise and pay the costs of a substitute driver.

21) Reimbursement of parking costs

If, during the return to the Insured Person's country of permanent residence, the Insured Person's scheduled flight is delayed for more than 4 hours or the Insured Person is forced to prolong his/her trip due to an event covered by the insurance agreement, the Insurance Company shall pay the documented costs for the prolonged time of parking the Insured Person's car left at the airport car park.

5. The Insurance Company's liability limits defined in sections 2 and 3 above shall decrease the sum insured under the medical treatment costs and assistance insurance, save for the transportation costs referred to in section 3 items 2), 3), 6), 7), 8), 9), 14) above.

§ 11 Sum insured under the medical treatment costs and assistance insurance

1. The sum insured indicated in the insurance document under the medical treatment costs and assistance insurance shall be the sum per each Insured Person.
2. The Insurance Company shall be liable to the maximum amount of the sum insured, as defined in the insurance document, including the limits stipulated in § 10 hereof.
3. The sum insured shall be the sum per incident, which shall mean that any amounts of benefit paid to the Insured Person in connection with the same incident shall not decrease the sum insured, unless otherwise provided herein.

§ 12 Exclusions of liability under the medical treatment costs and assistance insurance

1. In addition to the exclusions stated in § 56 hereof, the Insurance Company shall not be liable for medical treatment and assistance costs:

- 1) if there had been medical contraindications, known to the Insured Person or the Policyholder, against the Insured Person's making a foreign trip or if, before the Insured Person's departure abroad, there had been recommendations for him/her to undergo a surgery or hospital treatment;
- 2) exceeding the amounts required for the Insured Person to make sufficient recovery allowing him/her to return or to be transported to his/her place of residence or a health care unit on the territory of the Insured Person's country of residence;
- 3) resulting from illnesses, diseases or consequences of accidents that occurred outside the insurance period and whose treatment was not finalized;
- 4) related to illnesses resulting from alcoholism;
- 5) related to sanatorium treatment, therapies at recreational centers or addiction treatment centers, physiotherapy, heliotherapy, aesthetic operations, plastic surgery and beauty treatments;
- 6) if, in the opinion of a supervising doctor, the commencement of the treatment may be postponed until the Insured Person returns to the territory of the Insured Person's country of permanent residence;
- 7) not resulting from a sudden illness or an accident;
- 8) occurring on the territory of the Insured Person's country of permanent residence;
- 9) not required to diagnose or to treat an illness, related to a medical check-up or preventive vaccination;
- 10) related to foreign trips with a view to obtaining medical advice, resulting from the planned treatment and complications related thereto;
- 11) resulting from one's failure to comply with the recommendations of a supervising doctor or doctors of the Emergency Centre;
- 12) related to a childbirth occurring after the 30th week of pregnancy;
- 13) related to abortion, unless such abortion has been conducted to save the Insured Person's life or health and is allowed by the law of the country where it has been carried out;
- 14) related to artificial insemination or infertility treatment, as well as to the purchase of contraceptives;
- 15) resulting from operations or treatment by unconventional methods;
- 16) related to repair and purchase of corrective glasses and repair of prosthesis (including denture), medical equipment, medical apparatus and rehabilitation equipment, subject to the provisions of § 10 section 2 item 5 hereof;
- 17) arising from any travel and movement restrictions imposed by local authorities in any country through which the journey passes, including the country of departure;
- 18) in the case of issuance of a quarantine order, if the authorities of the country concerned have announced that a quarantine will have to be carried out on arrival before the scheduled date of departure.

§ 13 Procedure for events insured under the medical treatment costs and assistance insurance

1. If an event covered by the insurance occurs, the Insured Person or other persons acting on the Insured Person's behalf shall follow the provisions of this § 13.
2. If an event covered by the insurance occurs, the Insured Person shall, as far as possible, prevent the escalation of the loss and limit the consequences thereof.
3. Moreover, the Insured Person or a person acting on the Insured Person's behalf, shall, prior to taking up any actions on his/her own, contact the Emergency Centre by telephone, as indicated in the insurance document, not later than within 24 hours from the occurrence of the event covered by the insurance.
4. When contacting the Emergency Centre, the Insured Person or a person acting on the Insured Person's behalf shall:
 - 1) state the insurance document number and the Insured Person's name;
 - 2) provide to a Colonnade Emergency Centre consultant an accurate description of the circumstances of the insured event as well as the Insured Person's current situation;
 - 3) define what assistance is needed;
 - 4) provide a telephone number at which the Emergency Centre may contact the Insured Person or a person acting on the Insured Person's behalf;
 - 5) provide the Insurance Company's doctors with access to all medical information.
5. The Insured Person or a person acting on the Insured Person's behalf is obliged to:
 - a) comply with Emergency Centre's recommendations while providing all the indispensable information and authorization;
 - b) allow the Emergency Centre to perform activities required to determine the circumstances of the loss and claim, to confirm whether the claims are legitimate and to determine the amount of the benefit, as well as to provide all the necessary assistance and explanations.
6. The Insurance Company shall investigate claims on the condition of receiving the Insured Person's authorization, which shall be made in writing to be valid, to consult doctors conducting the treatment and other persons or offices in matters related to the accident or a sudden illness to such an extent as is related to loss adjustment procedure.
7. In the event that, for reasons beyond his/her control (which shall be adequately evidenced), the Insured Person or a person acting on the Insured Person's behalf does not contact the Emergency Centre in advance to obtain a guarantee that the costs will be covered or reimbursed, he/she shall notify the Emergency Centre of the incurred costs immediately after the cessation of such reasons, however not later than within 7 days from the date when such reasons cease.
8. In the event that the Insured Person or a person acting on the Insured Person's behalf, for reasons beyond his/her control, which shall be adequately evidenced, did not fulfil the obligation referred to in section 3 above and the Insured Person borne expenses, or if the Insured Person has obtained Emergency Centre's approval to have the costs incurred reimbursed after his/her return to the territory of the Insured Person's country of residence, he/she shall declare in writing his/her readiness to take advantage of the guarantees defined in the insurance contract within 7 days from the date of returning to the territory of the Insured Person's country of residence, however not later than within 45 days from the accident date. The notification of a claim for the payment of benefit under the medical treatment costs and assistance insurance shall contain:

- 1) the insurance document number or other data making it possible to identify the Insured Person;
- 2) a detailed description of the circumstances of the accident;
- 3) a medical certificate describing the type and nature of injuries, including an exact diagnosis and the recommended treatment;
- 4) the original bills and payment certificates, documents confirming the reasons and scope of medical assistance provided or related to other costs under insurance, and hospital certificates, which will allow the Insurance Company to determine the total treatment costs borne by the Insured Person.

ACCIDENT INSURANCE

§ 14 Subject matter and scope of accident insurance

1. Accident insurance shall cover the Insured Person's health and life.
2. The insurance cover shall apply to consequences of accidents occurring during the term of the insurance contract.
3. The Insurance Company guarantees the payment of the following benefits:
 - 1) Permanent disability resulting from an accident benefit – payable as a percentage of the sum insured indicated in the insurance document, on the basis of the Table of Benefits, constituting Annex 1 to these General Terms and Conditions of Insurance
 - 2) Accidental death benefit, in the event of the Insured Person's death within 12 months from the date of the accident. The benefit shall be payable at 100% of the sum insured under accident insurance indicated in the insurance document.

§ 15 Determining the benefits under accident insurance

1. The amount of benefit under accident insurance shall be determined after the confirmation that there is a causative relation between the accident and permanent disability/bodily injury or death.
2. The degree (percentage) of permanent disability/injury to health shall be determined immediately after the completion of treatment, taking into account the recommended rehabilitation treatment, however not later than within 24 months from the date of the accident.
3. Permanent bodily injury shall be determined subject to the following provisions:
 - 1) The degree (percentage) of permanent bodily injury is determined on the basis of the Table of Benefits, constituting Annex 1 to these General Terms and Conditions of Insurance.
 - 2) On the basis of the determined degree (percentage) of permanent bodily injury, the Insured Person is entitled to a benefit payable in the amount resulting from multiplying the sum insured indicated in the insurance document by the determined degree (percentage) of the Insured Person's permanent bodily injury, however not exceeding the amount determined in the insurance contract;
 5. When determining the degree (percentage) of permanent bodily injury, the type of work or activities performed by the Insured Person shall not be taken into account.
 6. The combined degree (percentage) of permanent bodily injury shall equal the sum of percentages determined for individual types of permanent bodily injury suffered by the Insured Person, on the condition that the combined value may not exceed 100%.
 7. In the event the Insured Person abandons further post-accident treatment which has been explicitly recommended by the doctors, the degree (percentage) of permanent bodily injury shall be determined for the health condition which, to the knowledge of a doctor making such a recommendation, would result from such recommended treatment.
 8. In the event of a loss of or injury to an organ or system whose functions were already impaired before the accident, the degree (percentage) of permanent bodily injury shall be determined as the difference between a condition after the accident and a condition existing directly prior to the accident.
 9. In the event the Insured Person dies as a result of the accident before the lapse of 12 months from the date of the accident, the Insurance Company shall pay to the Beneficiary a one-off benefit equal to the full sum insured in the event of death as determined in the insurance document, provided that no benefit on account of permanent disability/bodily injury was paid earlier. However, if the permanent bodily injury benefit was already paid, the death benefit shall be reduced by the amount previously paid.
 10. In the event the Insured Person dies for reasons not related to the accident and the degree (percentage) of permanent bodily injury was not determined earlier, the degree (percentage) of permanent bodily injury shall be determined on the basis of the medical documentation collected.
 11. In the event the Insured Person dies after his/her permanent bodily injury resulting from the accident was determined, but no benefit due to permanent bodily injury was paid, the Insurance Company shall only be obliged to pay the death benefit.
 12. In the event of the Insured Person's death after the expiry of 12 months from the date of the accident, the death benefit under the accident insurance shall not be payable.

§ 16 Sum insured under accident insurance

1. The sum insured under accident insurance indicated in the insurance document shall be the sum per capita.
2. The Insurance Company's liability shall not exceed the amount of the sum insured.
3. The sum insured shall be the sum per all incidents, which means that any amount of benefit paid in connection with the same incident to the Insured Person's benefit shall decrease the sum insured.

§ 17 Exclusions of liability under accident insurance

In addition to the exclusions stated in § 56 hereof, the insurance cover shall not apply to the consequences of accidents resulting from:

- 1) Intentional self-mutilation or injury at one's own request or a suicide attempt and consequences of the Insured Person's suicide, irrespective of the Insured Person's sanity;
- 2) The Insured Person's undergoing medical treatment or procedures, except for those that were related to the treatment of consequences of an accident and were recommended by a doctor;
- 3) Unorthodox procedures or treatment, not recognized scientifically or medically;
- 4) Poisoning with solid or liquid substances which entered the Insured Person's organism through respiratory tract, digestive tract or skin;
- 5) Any diseases, even those appearing abruptly or manifesting themselves after the accident has taken place;
- 6) Pregnancy and childbirth;
- 7) All somatic illnesses;
- 8) Chronic illnesses;
- 9) Mental disorders
- 10) Events resulting from the Insured Person's taking drugs, intoxicants, psychotropic substances or medicines not prescribed by a doctor or prescribed by a doctor, but not taken as recommended;
- 11) A pathological fracture, i.e. a fracture resulting from prior pathological bone conditions or subperiosteal fracture (the so-called bone rupture).

§ 18 Procedure for incidents under accident insurance

1. In the event of occurrence of an incident covered by the Insurance Company, the Insured Person or other persons acting on the Insured Person's behalf shall follow the provisions of this § 18.
2. In the event of an incident covered by the Insurance Company, the Insured Person shall, as far as possible, prevent the escalation of loss and limit the consequences thereof, as well as shall remain obliged to:
 - 1) Immediately submit himself/herself to medical care and to take up actions to mitigate the consequences of an accident by following the doctor's recommendations;
 - 2) Secure, at the place of the accident, the documents required to determine the legitimacy of the claim and the amount of the benefit, as well as the description of medical treatment, including the medical examination results (a doctor's diagnosis), justifying the necessity of providing immediate assistance, as well as other documents related to the accident which has taken place (e.g. a police memorandum describing the circumstances of a traffic accident, an industrial safety report in the case of an industrial accident);
 - 3) Submit to the Insurance Company in writing a loss notification, with the use of the form indicated by the Insurance Company or of contents corresponding to the contents of such a form, together with the comprehensive documentation of the accident, within 7 days from the date of return to the territory of the Insured Person's country of residence, however not later than within 45 days from the date of the accident. The loss notification shall contain:
 - a) The insurance document number or other data making it possible to identify the Insured Person;
 - b) A detailed description of the circumstances of loss (the date, place, description of the loss and the actions taken by the Insured Person after the incident);
 - c) Medical documentation confirming the occurrence of the incident and injuries resulting therefrom;
 - 4) Undergo a medical examination (to the extent determined by the Insurance Company), to be conducted by doctors appointed by the Insurance Company, in order to determine the condition of the Insured Person's health or his/her bodily injury; the costs of such an examination shall be borne by the Insurance Company.
3. The Insurance Company shall investigate claims on the condition of receiving the Insured Person's authorization, which shall be made in writing to be valid, to consult doctors conducting the treatment and other persons or offices in matters related to the accident to such an extent as is related to loss adjustment procedure.
4. In the event of the Insured Person's death, the persons entitled to the benefit, on production of a death certificate, shall be determined in accordance with § 8 section 6 hereof.

PERSONAL LIABILITY INSURANCE

§ 19 Subject matter and scope of personal liability insurance

1. The insurance shall cover the Insured Person's civil liability for personal injury or damage to person and property as a result of civil wrong (tort liability) against third parties outside the Insured Person's country of residence, in connection to the performance of private life activities.
2. The Insurance Company's liability shall cover damage caused by the Insured Person, as well as by the persons and animals the Insured Person is liable for, if, under the laws of a country where he/she is staying, the Insured Person is obliged to redress such damage.

§ 20 Sum insured under personal liability insurance

1. The sum insured under personal liability insurance against damage caused to persons and property indicated in the insurance document shall constitute the upper limit of the Insurance Company's liability.
2. The sum insured shall be determined individually per each Insured Person and shall be each time decreased by the compensation paid.
3. Under the sum insured, the Insurance Company shall:
 - 1) Verify the legitimacy of the claims against the Insured Person;

- 2) Pay the compensation which the Insured Person is obliged to pay to the aggrieved person on account of the damage caused, such damage covered by the insurance contract, on the basis of a settlement agreement concluded or approved by the Insurance Company, a recognition issued or approved by the Insurance Company or a legally valid court judgment;
- 3) Cover the costs of a defence counsel hired to represent the Insured Person's welfare during the trial.

§ 21 Exclusions of liability under personal liability insurance

1. In addition to the exclusions stated in § 56 hereof, the Insurance Company shall not be liable for the damage:
 - 1) Resulting from contractual liability (failure to perform or inadequate performance of an agreement);
 - 2) Caused by the Insured Person to his/her family members and caused to animals that the Insured Person is responsible for;
 - 3) Caused deliberately by members of the Insured Person's household;
 - 4) Resulting from the Insured Person's owning, during a foreign trip, wild and exotic animals, which the Insured Person is responsible for;
 - 5) Resulting from the loss of or damage to property belonging to the Insured Person or the property of another person, used by the Insured Person on the basis of a rental, lease, loan, custody or similar agreement (save for a room rented in a hotel or in a guesthouse);
 - 6) Resulting from ordinary use of an object or due to such object's technical wear and tear;
 - 7) Comprising lost profits;
 - 8) To means of payment, files, documents, plans, archives, stamp and numismatic collections, IT files, irrespective of the type of carrier, and works of art;
 - 9) Resulting from activities not related to the Insured Person's private life,
 - 10) Relating to the violation of copyrights, patents, trademarks and registered names;
 - 11) Resulting from disease transmission;
 - 12) Caused by motor vehicles, vessels, machines or machinery driven by the Insured Person;
 - 13) To the natural environment;
 - 14) Arising from the Insured Person's possession and utilization of any type of weapon, even for self-defence;
 - 15) Resulting from hunting of animals;
 - 16) Resulting from practising aerial sports;
 - 17) Caused by the Insured Person as a result of his/her alcoholism or events resulting from the Insured Person's being under the influence of alcohol, drugs, intoxicants, psychotropic substances or medicines not prescribed by a doctor or prescribed by a doctor, but not taken as recommended;
 - 18) Whose value does not exceed 300 EUR.
2. The insurance cover shall not apply to compensations (damages) awarded under criminal law, i.e. all financial penalties (mandatory fines), court fines, administrative penalties and taxes.

§ 22 Procedure for incidents under civil liability insurance

1. In the event of occurrence of an incident covered by the Insurance Company, the Insured Person or other persons acting on the Insured Person's behalf shall follow the provisions of this § 22.
2. In the event of an incident covered by the Insurance Company, the Insured Person shall, as far as possible, prevent the escalation of loss and limit the consequences thereof
3. Additionally, the Insured Person or a person acting on the Insured Person's behalf shall, prior to taking up any actions on his/her own, immediately contact the Emergency Centre by telephone, not later than within 7 days from the date of the incident which may result in the Insured Person's civil liability, and present the circumstances of the incident, as well as collect, secure and provide the Insurance Company with the evidence necessary to determine the circumstances of the incident.
4. In the case of each incident covered by the civil liability insurance contract, the Insured Person shall enable the Insurance Company to perform activities necessary to define the circumstances in which the loss arose, as well as the legitimacy of a claim and the amount thereof.
5. If the aggrieved person vindicates a claim against the Insured Person, the Insured Person shall without delay notify the Insurance Company thereof.
6. In the case the Insured Person is notified that preparatory proceedings have been instigated or legal action has been taken against him/her, the Insured Person shall:
 - 1) Without delay, however not later than within 2 days, inform the Insurance Company about such a fact (even if the insured incident has been already reported by him/her);
 - 2) Provide the Insurance Company with the necessary authorizations to conduct compensative cases, including the warrant of attorney, if the aggrieved person has taken legal action against the Insured Person. The above shall not discharge the Insured Person from his/her obligation to lodge an objection prior to the relevant time limit, or to take up necessary measures of appeal;
 - 3) Immediately present to the Insurance Company any summons, lawsuit, extrajudicial documentation and court documents addressed to the Insured Person or served on him/her;
 - 4) Present to the Insurance Company the original documents substantiating the occurrence of the incident.
7. In the event a claim is vindicated, the Insured Person or a person acting on the Insured Person's behalf shall not be entitled to take up any actions with a view to accepting and satisfying such a claim nor shall they attempt to make a settlement with the aggrieved person without the Insurance Company's consent. In the event of a breach of the above provision the Insurance Company shall be discharged from its obligation to pay the benefit, unless, on account of the circumstances of the case, the Insured Person could not have acted differently.

LUGGAGE INSURANCE

§ 23 Subject matter and scope of luggage insurance

1. The insurance shall cover:
 - 1) luggage;
 - 2) portable electronic equipment which belongs to the Insured Person, subject to provisions of section 4 below.
2. The insurance cover shall apply to luggage which is under direct custody of the Insured Person or if the Insured Person:
 - 1) Entrusts luggage to a professional carrier for transportation on the basis of a relevant transportation document;
 - 2) Deposits luggage at the left luggage office against a receipt;
 - 3) Leaves luggage in a room occupied by the Insured Person at the place of accommodation locked with a mechanical or electronic lock (save for a tent);
 - 4) Leaves luggage in a separate locked luggage room at a railway station or a bus station or at the airport;
 - 5) Places luggage in the locked luggage locker or a mechanically or electronically locked boot of a car kept at an attended car park and the luggage loss is confirmed with a relevant document;
 - 6) Places luggage in a mechanically or electronically locked vessel or car trailer (caravan) cabin kept at an attended site.
3. The Insurance Company shall pay to the Insured Person a compensation for luggage loss, theft, or damage (partial damage or entire destruction) in the case of:
 - 1) occurrences such as a fire, hurricane, flood, torrential rain, hail, avalanche/landslide, being struck with direct lightning, earthquake, land sinking or sliding, explosion or a crash of aircraft, and water leakage out the plumbing installation;
 - 2) Rescue operation carried out in relation to acts of God referred to in item 1) above;
 - 3) A ground, aquatic or aerial traffic accident in which the Insured Person has been involved;
 - 4) A burglary, substantiated by notifying the police, occurring in the rooms specified in section 2 above or a robbery;
 - 5) An accident or sudden illness, confirmed by a doctor's diagnosis, as a result of which the Insured Person was not in a position to exercise due care of and to secure his/her luggage;
 - 6) Loss of, or damage to, luggage, if the luggage was in charge of a professional carrier, on the basis of a carriage document, or was left at the left luggage office against a receipt;
 - 7) Damage (partial damage or entire destruction) to suitcases, rucksacks, bags, briefcases, parcels and similar containers solely if such damage is the result of a substantiated theft of a part of or the whole contents thereof.
4. The Insurance Company shall pay to the Insured Person a compensation for theft or robbery of portable electronic equipment, if the portable electronic equipment was in direct care of the Insured Person or was placed in hand luggage.

§ 24 Sum insured under luggage insurance

1. The sum insured under luggage insurance indicated in the insurance document shall be the sum per each Insured Person.
2. The sum insured shall constitute the upper limit of the Insurance Company's liability, save for the cases of theft/robbery of electronic equipment, when the upper limit of the Insurance Company's liability shall be 50% of the sum insured under luggage insurance indicated in the insurance document.
3. The sum insured shall be the sum per all incidents, which means that each benefit amount paid to the Insured Person shall decrease the sum insured.

§ 25 Exclusions of liability under luggage insurance

1. In addition to the exclusions stated in § 56 hereof, the scope of luggage insurance shall also not cover the loss, or damage (partial damage or entire destruction):
 - 1) Caused by the Insured Person, members of the Insured Person's family or persons the Insured Person is liable for;
 - 2) Done to objects left unattended, subject to the provisions of § 23 section 2 hereof;
 - 3) Resulting from confiscation, forfeiture or damage to luggage by the customs authorities or other public authorities;
 - 4) Not reported to the police or to the carrier within 24 hours from the date of discovering the loss covered by the insurance contract, except for the events beyond the Insured Person's control, as a result of which the Insured Person was prevented from doing so;
 - 5) Whose value does not exceed 100 EUR.
2. Additionally, the insurance shall not cover any damage (partly damaged or entirely destroyed luggage):
 - 1) Resulting from defects of the insured object occurring due to ordinary wear and tear or damage (partly damaged or entirely destroyed luggage) to the insured object as an effect of its use;
 - 2) Caused by animals;
 - 3) Resulting from spontaneous combustion, decay, leak of liquids, fats, dyes or caustic substances deposited in the luggage;
 - 4) To fragile objects, especially those made of clay, glass, porcelain or marble;
 - 5) Caused to electrical or electronic apparatus and equipment as a result of defects thereof or the operation of electric current during their use, unless the operation of electric current caused the fire of the luggage.
3. The insurance shall not cover the following objects:
 - 1) Means of payment (payment cards, cash etc.), travel tickets, vouchers, savings vouchers and coupons, securities and keys, tickets for cultural events (concert, theatre, or cinema tickets), as well as any documents;
 - 2) Jewellery, things made of precious metals and stones, watches, works of art, antiques, numismatic and other collections, documents and manuscripts, things of scientific and artistic value, trophies and musical instruments;
 - 3) Means of transport, except for prams and wheelchairs;
 - 4) Sports and tourist equipment (excluding tents, sleeping bags, foam mattresses, mattresses), and sailing equipment;

- 5) Electronic equipment not in the direct care of the Insured Person, placed in the main luggage, deposited in the luggage compartment.
- 6) Medical equipment, rehabilitation equipment, prostheses/artificial limbs, all types of glasses, contact lenses, medical apparatuses, except for blood pressure meters (sphygmomanometers) and glucose meters (glucometers).

§ 26 Procedure for incidents under luggage insurance

1. The Insured Person shall comply with the regulations in place in a given country, aimed at counteracting damage and, in particular, shall exercise due diligence in guarding the property.
2. In the event of an incident covered by the Insurance Company's liability, the Insured Person or other persons acting on the Insured Person's behalf shall follow the provisions of this § 26.
3. In the event of an incident covered by the Insurance Company's liability, the Insured Person shall:
 - 1) Prevent, as far as possible, the escalation of damage and limit the consequences thereof;
 - 2) Notify the police of each case of burglary, robbery or loss of objects covered by the insurance and obtain a written confirmation thereof (a report/protocol), itemizing the lost objects (their type, quantity) and the value thereof;
 - 3) Notify the relevant carrier or the management of the hotel, holiday house, camping site etc. of any damage occurring in the public means of transport or at the place of accommodation and obtain a written confirmation of such damage from a person or company responsible for luggage storing or liable for its damaging, itemizing the lost objects (their type, quantity) and the value thereof;
 - 4) Collect, secure and provide the Insurance Company with evidence for the circumstances of the incident;
 - 5) Secure, until the case is closed, the damaged (partly damaged or entirely destroyed) objects so as to allow for their inspection by the Insurance Company, the police, airport services;
 - 6) Not later than within 7 days from the date of return to the territory of the Insured Person's country of residence, however not later than within 45 days from the date of occurrence of the damage, submit to the Insurance Company a claim notification, which shall contain:
 - a) The insurance document number or other data making it possible to identify the Insured Person;
 - b) A detailed description of the circumstances of the loss (the date, place, description of the loss and actions taken by the Insured Person after the incident occurred);
 - c) A list of damaged or lost objects, drawn up by the Insured Person and confirmed by competent authorities or by the person or company responsible for luggage storing or carriage;
 - d) Documentation confirming the loss or damage to luggage (partial damage or entire destruction);
 - e) Medical documentation confirming circumstances which led to the loss of luggage as a result of events referred to in § 23 section 3 item 5);
 - f) A confirmation of submitting notification of theft, burglary or robbery/assault to the competent authorities;
 - g) The original luggage tickets or receipts;
 - h) The original bills for the repair of damaged luggage and proofs of their payment;
 - i) Documents confirming the purchase or ownership of the destroyed or lost objects (receipts and other documents).

§ 27 Determination of compensation under luggage insurance

1. The compensation shall be paid in the part which is not covered by the professional carrier liable for the damage to luggage (partial damage or entire destruction), or its loss.
2. The compensation may neither exceed the value of the actual loss suffered nor cover the damage caused earlier, including the extent of ordinary wear and tear.
3. The value of objects shall be determined on the basis of original receipts of purchase or the value of new objects of identical functional features on the date of the incident. In the event of luggage damage, the compensation shall be determined at repair costs, and in the case of luggage loss, at the actual value of an object, taking into account its ordinary actual wear and tear at the level of 10% of the object's value per annum.
4. In determining the extent of the loss, the following shall not be taken into consideration:
 - 1) Scientific, collector's, antique or commemorative value of objects;
 - 2) Costs borne to disinfect the remains of the loss.

§ 28 Recovery of stolen or lost objects

1. In the event of recovering stolen or lost objects:
 - 1) The Insured Person shall immediately notify this fact to the Insurance Company;
 - 2) If the benefit has not been paid yet, the Insured Person shall collect the recovered objects, on doing which the Insurance Company shall pay the compensation for the damaged or missing luggage, if any, in accordance with the provisions hereof;
 - 3) If the compensation has already been paid, the Insured Person shall return the amount thereof to the Insurance Company or transfer the tenure or ownership rights to the recovered objects to the Insurance Company. The amount of compensation to be returned by the Insured Person shall be decreased by the Insurance Company by the amount of compensation obtained by the Insured Person in respect of any damage or missing items.

DELAYED LUGGAGE INSURANCE

§ 29 Subject matter and scope of delayed luggage insurance

1. The insurance shall cover the costs incurred by the Insured Person in connection with a delay in luggage delivery.

2. The Insurance Company shall, on the basis of original receipts, reimburse the Insured Person the costs up to the sum insured indicated in the insurance document, in the event when, as a result of an evidenced delay in luggage delivery by airlines to the Insured Person's place of stay outside the Insured Person's country of permanent residence by not less than 4 hours, the Insured Person has borne expenses to buy basic necessities, such as foodstuffs, clothes and toiletries.
3. The insurance cover pertaining to a delay in luggage delivery shall be granted provided that the luggage was entrusted to airlines against a receipt.
4. The insurance cover shall not be provided in the event of a delay in luggage delivery on the territory of the Insured Person's country of permanent residence.

§ 30 Procedure for incidents under delayed luggage insurance

1. In the event of an incident covered by the Insurance Company's liability, the Insured Person or other persons acting on the Insured Person's behalf shall follow the provisions of this § 30.
2. In the event of an incident covered by the Insurance Company's liability, the Insured Person shall:
 - 1) Notify the carrier about it and obtain documents confirming a delay in luggage delivery and the time of delivering the luggage by the carrier to the Insured Person's place of stay.
 - 2) Obtain receipts and proofs of payment for the basic necessities.
 - 3) Not later than within 7 days from the date of return to the Insured Person's country of residence, however not later than within 45 days from the date of occurrence of the damage, submit to the Insurance Company a claim notification, which shall contain:

 - e) All the original documents and information confirming the legitimacy of the claim and/or other information required by the Insurance Company in order to determine the entitlement to the compensation or the amount thereof.

§ 31 Exclusions of liability under delayed luggage insurance

In addition to the exclusions stated in § 56 hereof, the scope of luggage insurance shall not cover:

- 1) A delay resulting from confiscation, forfeiture or damage to luggage by the customs authorities or other public authorities;
- 2) A delay in the trip in the case of the Insured Person's return to the territory of his/her place of permanent residence;
- 3) Events occurring as a result of natural disasters;
- 4) Purchase of basic necessities in the event of a delay of less than 4 hours from the moment of the Insured Person's arrival at his/her destination.

DELAYED FLIGHT INSURANCE

§ 32 Subject matter and scope of delayed flight insurance

1. The insurance shall cover the costs incurred by the Insured Person in connection with a delayed flight.
2. The Insurance Company shall, on the basis of original receipts, reimburse the Insured Person the costs up to the amount of the sum insured indicated in the insurance document, in the event when, as a result of an evidenced flight delay of no less than 4 hours as compared to the scheduled time, the Insured Person incurred necessary expenses for the purchase of basic necessities, such as clothes, toiletries, foodstuffs, and for the reservation of accommodation for an additional night(s), and the transfer to and from the airport.
3. The Insurance Company's liability shall consist in reimbursing the indispensable expenses incurred by the Insured Person and not covered by the professional carrier, in the amount not exceeding the sum insured indicated in the insurance document.

§ 33 Procedure for incidents under delayed flight insurance

1. In the event of an incident covered by the Insurance Company's liability, the Insured Person or other persons acting on the Insured Person's behalf shall follow the provisions of this § 33.
2. In the event of an incident covered by the Insurance Company's liability, the Insured Person shall:
 - 1) Contact the carrier providing the flight and obtain from the carrier the documents confirming a flight delay ;
 - 2) Obtain from the carrier information in writing on which costs incurred by the Insured Person due to a flight delay shall be covered by the carrier;
 - 3) Obtain receipts and proofs of payment for the basic necessities, for the reservation of accommodation for an additional night(s), and for the transfer to and from the airport incurred due to a delayed flight, unless these expenses are covered by the professional carrier; the documents itemized above shall constitute the basis for the calculation and payment of the benefit;
 - 4) Not later than within 7 days from the date of return to the Insured Person's country of residence, however not later than within 45 days from the date of occurrence of the damage, submit to the Insurance Company a claim notification, which shall contain:
 - a) The insurance document number or other data making it possible to identify the Insured Person;
 - b) The date, place and description of the loss;
 - c) Documentation confirming the flight delay;
 - d) The original receipts or invoices for the purchase of basic necessities and for the reservation of accommodation for an additional night(s), and the transfer to and from the airport;

- e) All the original documents and information confirming the legitimacy of the claim and/or other information required by the Insurance Company in order to determine the entitlement to the compensation or the amount thereof.

§ 34 Exclusions of liability under delayed flight insurance

1. In addition to the exclusions stated in § 56 hereof, the scope of insurance shall not cover:
 - 1) A flight delay occurring on the territory of the Insured Person's country of residence;
 - 2) A delay in flight which was not previously confirmed/checked-in by the Insured Person, save for the cases in which the Insured Person was prevented from doing so due to a strike or occurrence of Force Majeure;
 - 3) The purchase of basic necessities in the event of a delay of less than 4 hours as compared to the scheduled departure time;
 - 4) A delay resulting from a strike, about which the Insured Person knew prior to the departure;
 - 5) A temporary or permanent withdrawal of an airplane by the airport authorities, civil aviation authorities or a competent authority of any country;
 - 6) Events occurring as a result of natural disasters.
2. The Insurance Company shall not be liable for any losses incurred by the Insured Person as a result of the departure not taking place as scheduled and for the expenses borne by the Insured Person in connection with a delay of a foreign scheduled flight, whose cover shall be the obligation of the professional aviation carrier subject to the law in force.

INSURANCE OF CASH WITHDRAWN FROM AN ATM

§ 35 Subject matter and scope of insurance of cash withdrawn from an ATM

1. The insurance shall cover cash withdrawn from an ATM by the Insured Person during a foreign trip and lost as a result of an assault (robbery) taking place not later than 2 hours from the moment of withdrawing the money from an ATM.
2. The insurance shall cover the cash withdrawn from any ATM worldwide, excluding the ATMs operating on the territory of the Insured Person's country of permanent residence.

§ 36 Sum insured under insurance of cash withdrawn from an ATM

1. The sum insured shall be the actual amount withdrawn from an ATM and lost as a result of an assault (robbery), however not more than an amount of the sum insured for the total length of the Insured Person's stay abroad, indicated in the insurance document.
2. The sum insured under insurance of cash withdrawn from an ATM and lost as a result of an assault (robbery) shall be the sum per each Insured Person for the total length of that Insured Person's stay abroad.

§ 37 Exclusions of liability under insurance of cash withdrawn from an ATM

In addition to the exclusions stated in § 56 hereof, the Insurance Company shall not be liable for the cash withdrawn from an ATM and lost as a result of an assault (robbery) when:

- 1) the withdrawal of cash took place on the territory of the Insured Person's country of permanent residence;
- 2) the loss of cash as a result of an assault (robbery) occurred after the lapse of 2 hours from the moment of withdrawing the money from an ATM;
- 3) the loss of cash was not documented by a police report, drawn up by the local police in the country of the Insured Person's stay.

§ 38 Procedure for incidents under insurance of cash withdrawn from an ATM and lost as a result of an assault (robbery)

The Insured Person is obliged to notify the Insurance Company in writing about the loss of cash withdrawn from an ATM as a result of an assault (robbery) within 7 days from the date of the trip's end and provide:

Rules for the processing of personal data

The administrator of personal data is Colonnade Insurance S.A., carrying out operations in Poland through its local office (hereinafter: Colonnade or the Administrator). The legal basis and purpose of the processing of personal data is to take action prior to the conclusion and completion of an insurance contract, including the fulfilment of Colonnade's legal obligation to assess an insurance risk and to assess the needs (adequacy of the product offered). In case of collecting the data concerning the state of health, the legal basis for the processing of those data is the person's consent. For persons other than the Policyholder, e.g. the Insured Person, the performance of an insurance contract, which constitutes the legal basis for the personal data processing, shall constitute the justified purpose of the personal data processing.

Personal data may also be processed in order to fulfil the legal obligations incumbent on the Administrator, and the necessity of their processing always stems from legal regulations (concerning insurance activity, complaint handling, tax and accounting issues, statistical and actuarial obligations and consumer protection), as well as for purposes arising from the legally justified interests of the Administrator (i.e. reduction of insurance risk through its reinsurance, prevention of Administrator's sustaining damage through counteracting insurance crime, conducting direct marketing of in-house products through conducting analytical activities and contacting the person whom the data concern, ensuring compliance with international sanctions through analyses, and also to for the purpose of asserting or defending against claims arising from the Administrator's activity, including any necessary actions to secure them). Personal data may be disclosed to other entities only in connection with the implementation of the aforementioned objectives and on the basis of a written agreement (including IT service providers, insurance intermediaries, loss adjusters, debt collectors and marketing agencies), as well as to other entities in connection with the justified purpose of the Administrator (including insurance companies, reinsurers, payment operators, entities providing services directly to the benefit of the aggrieved person).

Depending on the purpose, personal data is always processed no longer than provided for by the statute of limitations of claims or legal regulations. Personal data may be transferred to third countries (outside the European Economic Area) only in situations specified by law, in particular if conditions ensuring an adequate level of personal data security are met. In order to comply with established international sanctions, your personal data may be transferred to DXC Technology, a company based in the United States, which has joined the Privacy Shield program, meaning that DXC Technology ensures that appropriate measures are taken to protect and secure personal data as required by European law.

The person whom the data concerns has the right to request access to personal data, to correct it, delete it or limit the processing of it or to object to the processing of it, the right to transfer the data and to lodge a complaint with the data protection supervisory authority (both in Poland and Luxembourg) and the right to withdraw his/her consent. The provision of personal data is necessary for the conclusion, accession and completion of an insurance agreement and for the fulfilment of Colonnade's legal obligations. It is not possible to conclude and access an insurance contract without supplying personal data. Providing a telephone number and an email address is voluntary, unless these are required for the purpose of delivering the insurance documentation. Notwithstanding the above, conducting direct marketing activities by e-mail or by telephone shall not be possible without prior consent, which may be revoked at all times by making contact, as specified in the General Terms and Conditions of Insurance, or on the website: www.colonnade.pl.

The Administrator may make automated decisions, including profiling, regarding the assessment of insurance risk, which may affect the scope of the offered product, the amount of premium or the refusal to conclude an insurance agreement on account of the information provided, in particular, concerning age, place of residence, claims number/history, subject-matter of insurance. The person whom the data concerns shall have the right to obtain human intervention from the Administrator, to express his/her views and to challenge this decision by contacting the Administrator in the manner set out below.

The Administrator may be contacted by writing a letter to Colonnade, calling +48 22 276 26 02 and sending an email to bok@colonnade.pl. For all matters relating to the processing of personal data, in particular exercising your rights in relation to data processing, objection, or data transfer outside the EEA, you may contact the Data Protection Officer at Colonnade (dpo@colonnade.pl) or send a letter to a Colonnade branch at all times.

In particular, the person whom the data concerns shall have the right to object to the processing of the personal data for the purpose of conducting direct marketing campaigns.
